"MaryAnn has contributed to Avnet's culture, raising the bar in performance management, talent management and people development," said Avnet Chairman and CEO Roy Vallee. "Her persistence and dedication have earned her respect and admiration inside Avnet and in the community as well. This promotion to Senior Vice President recognizes her leadership and commitment to accelerating the success of our customers, suppliers, employees and shareholders."

Miller joined Avnet in 2006 with more than 25 years of experience in human resources and operations management in financial services, medical products and wireless communications. She is credited with positioning the human resources function as a strategic business partner and developing a comprehensive, integrated approach that enables Avnet to attract, engage, develop and reward the best employees. In addition, she has led her team to leverage Avnet's scale and scope by driving consistency in employee programs and people practices globally while being sensitive to local market practices and cultural differences. She was recognized with the Avnet Chairman's Award in 2009.

Miller received Arizona State University's W.P. Carey School of Business Distinguished Achievement Award in 2010. She holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Illinois and a master's in Business Administration from Arizona State University, W.P. Carey School of Business.
