Avnet, Inc. To Acquire Azzurri Technology Ltd.

Acquisition Strengthens Avnet in Major European Markets and Product Lines

Phoenix, January 10th, 2008 – Avnet, Inc. (NYSE:AVT) announced today that it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire the UK-based distributor Azzurri Technology Ltd. Azzurri is one of Europe’s leading design-in distributors of high technology semiconductors and embedded systems products. The closing of the transaction is subject to customary regulatory approval and other closing conditions. Upon closing, Azzurri will be integrated into Avnet Electronics Marketing EMEA primarily within the Avnet Memec specialist division.

Azzurri has been in business for more than ten years and has operations in the UK, Germany, France and Italy. Its annual revenue is approximately US$100 million and it employs about 80 people. Azzurri has established a first class reputation for introducing leading technology products into the European electronics market. Azzurri is focused on a small number of franchised suppliers with the prime objective of assisting customers with the design-in of complex semiconductors and sub-system level solutions.

Harley Feldberg, president of Avnet Electronics Marketing, commented, “Adding Azzurri’s design and engineering expertise to our European team will enhance Avnet Memec’s position as the leading pan-European specialist distributor and will benefit both customers and suppliers alike. The acquisition will add new semiconductor suppliers to Avnet Memec’s breadth of product offerings in microprocessors, microcontrollers and analog components and expands our presence in Europe’s largest markets.”

“Design-in distribution with exceptional service to our customers and suppliers is the foundation of our company,” said Mike Carlucci, Azzurri’s president and CEO. “Avnet Memec has a similar approach to the marketplace and that is why the strategic fit is so strong. Both companies have much to gain from working together and merging them will bring many benefits to employees, suppliers and customers,” added Carlucci.

With the addition of Azzurri, Avnet Memec will add talented employees in several important markets and increase its revenue base over 40%. The combined organization’s strength in engineering will be complemented by Avnet’s world-class supply chain management and logistics capabilities. The transaction is expected to be immediately accretive to earnings, excluding minimal integration charges, and supports Avnet’s long-term return on capital goals.

The two organizations share the same market approach, have complementary line cards and put design and engineering expertise at the core of their value proposition for customers and suppliers. Steve Haynes, president of Avnet Memec EMEA stated, “I am enthusiastic about this acquisition, not just because it creates an opportunity to broaden our presence within our customer base, but also because Azzurri is the ideal match to Avnet Memec.”
